
About the Authors

Elizabeth Renuart is an NCLC staff attorney focusing on home ownership issues, Truth in Lending, consumer credit, and predatory lending. She is author of Stop Predatory Lending (2002), co-author of Truth in Lending (5th ed. 2003), The Cost of Credit (3d ed. 2005), and the editor of NCLC REPORTS, Consumer Credit & Usury Edition. Prior to joining NCLC, she was the managing attorney of a legal services office in Baltimore, Maryland, where she litigated cases involving mortgage lending, Truth in Lending, usury, deceptive practices, and fraud. She has been a legal services attorney for over twenty-five years.

Odette Williamson is an NCLC staff attorney with a focus on sustainable homeownership, consumer credit and foreclosure prevention and is co-author of Foreclosures (2005). She formerly was an assistant attorney general with the Consumer Protection Division of the Massachusetts Attorney General's Office.

Mark Benson has been a consultant to NCLC for ten years, coordinating and conducting foreclosure prevention training. He was also head of the Housing Counseling Division of St. Ambrose Housing Aid Center in Maryland. He is a past president of both the National Shared Housing Resource Center and the Maryland Center for Community Development.

The Contributing Authors are: Alys Cohen, Charlie Harak, Deanne Loonin, John Rao, Diane Thompson, Steve Tripoli, Tara Twomey, Chi Chi Wu.