

Student Loan Law (3d ed. 2006)

About the Authors

Deanne Loonin is an NCLC staff attorney focusing on student loan law. She also works more generally in the areas of credit discrimination and consumer credit law, with an emphasis on issues affecting the elderly and new immigrants. She was formerly a legal services attorney in Los Angeles specializing in consumer fraud cases. She is the author of the first and second editions of this volume and co-author of Credit Discrimination (4th ed. 2005) and Surviving Debt (2006).

John Rao is an NCLC attorney focusing on consumer bankruptcy and credit law. He is the editor of Consumer Bankruptcy Law and Practice (8th ed. 2006), co-author of Foreclosures (2005), and a contributing author to Student Loan Law (2d ed. 2002) and Repossessions (6th ed. 2005). He is also a contributing author to Collier on Bankruptcy and the Collier Bankruptcy Practice Guide. For 18 years, he had a bankruptcy and consumer law focus at Rhode Island Legal Services and was a managing attorney there. He is a member of the board of directors of the National Association of Consumer Bankruptcy Attorneys and the American Bankruptcy Institute.

Acknowledgments: We are particularly grateful to Dorothy Tan for editorial supervision; Nathan Day for editorial assistance; Allen Agnitti, Gillian Feiner and Hellen Papavizas for research assistance; Mary Kingsley, Kurt Terwilliger, and Shirlron Williams for assistance with cite checking; Shannon Halbrook for production assistance; Mary McLean for indexing, Xylutions for typesetting services; and Neil Fogarty of Law Disks for developing the CD-Rom.

Thanks also to Geoff Walsh and Tara Twomey for their work on chapter 7, and to the following people for contributing pleadings and other information to this and prior editions: Elena Ackel, Irv Ackelsberg, Peter Barry, Tom Domonoske, Stephen Gardner, George Gingo, Kathryn Harlow, Walter Oney, Dale Pittman, James Smith, Jane Stevens, Jennifer Stoller, Alan White, and Brian Wolfman. We would also like to thank a number of Department of Education staff who have generously answered questions and clarified department policies, especially Gary Hopkins, Denise Leifeste, Susan Szabo and Debra Wiley. Special thanks to Jon Sheldon for authoring the student loan chapters in Unfair and Deceptive Acts and Practices, which provided the springboard for this volume.