

Denise Lisio, Director of Editorial and Production

Denise Lisio is a Legal Editor with the National Consumer Law Center. In addition to editing NCLC's treatises, guide books, and newsletters, Denise works closely with the publisher and supervises the editorial department. Prior to joining the Center full-time in 1996, Denise worked on a variety of NCLC's treatises doing research and writing. Denise has also worked with Nebraskans Against the Death Penalty, the ACLU, and the University of Iowa Legal Clinic. She received her B.A. from Grinnell College and her J.D. from the University of Iowa College of Law. Denise is a member of the Massachusetts bar.