

Jon Sheldon, Attorney

Jon Sheldon has been a staff attorney with NCLC for over 40 years. Jon has a focus on state unfair and deceptive trade practices statutes, automobile leasing, automobile fraud, collection actions, arbitration issues, and oversees NCLC's publications program. Prior to joining NCLC, he was a staff attorney with the Division of Special Projects within the Federal Trade Commission in Washington, DC. Jon is a graduate of Harvard College (1970) and Harvard Law School (1973). He is admitted to the Massachusetts bar. He is co-author of a number of NCLC publications including Unfair and Deceptive Acts and Practices, Automobile Fraud, Federal Deception Law, Consumer Warranty Law, Collection Actions, and Consumer Credit Regulation, and is a contributing author for a number of other NCLC treatises.