

Moussou N'Diaye, Digital Content and Operations Assistant

Moussou N'Diaye joined the National Consumer Law Center in 2020. She helps maintain and update the NCLC website, in addition to designing and tweaking digital and print materials that the organization needs. She also assists staff with software problems. Her free time is spent illustrating, animating, and making films.