

Conferences & Trainings

NCLC provides high-quality, comprehensive training opportunities for consumer attorneys and advocates across the nation. At NCLC conference you can develop your expertise, learn from the experts about both the basics and the latest in developments in consumer litigation, consumer law remedies, industry trends, public policy, and more while earning CLE credits!

NCLC conferences are beneficial for all who represent consumers-thousands of legal aid lawyers, private attorneys, and advocates benefit from our conferences, trainings, and webinars each year. Trainings cover a wide range of consumer law topics including foreclosure prevention, bankruptcy, elder rights, utility rights, student loans, auto fraud, debt collection and many more. Each conference provides both introductory and advanced courses, often within topic-specific tracks, allowing your unique needs to be met. We hope you'll join us at one or more of our 2019 conferences!

Consumer Rights Litigation Conference 2019
November 14-17 • Boston, Massachusetts

The CRLC has been a vital part of my development as a consumer advocate. Each year there is something new to learn from experts in the field - whether it's a changing area of law, an emerging trend, or a novel legal strategy to add to my practice. But more than this, the conference is an invaluable way to connect with the smartest consumer advocates from around the country, and become part of a collaborative community that has a significant impact in the fight for consumer justice. -J. Rachel Scott, Staff Attorney, Senior Citizens Law Project, Atlanta Legal Aid Society, Inc.

In-Person Trainings

NCLC advocates are available for specialized, in-person training workshops in your state or at your local organization. The goal of our in-person training program is to increase the quality and accessibility of advocacy resources for consumers nationwide. NCLC advocates have the ability to train your group on a number of consumer law topics. Our workshops are designed for all levels of experience, from a nuts and bolts session for beginners to cutting-edge strategies for sophisticated practitioners. The sessions are carefully prepared to be practical, participant-oriented, and energizing. To request an in-person training in your state or at your local organization, please fill out this training request form.

National Elder Rights Training Project

NCLC is pleased to provide in-person trainings for the aging and legal services networks nationwide. NCLC and our partners work with the Administration on Aging/Administration for Community Living to further its mission of helping Older Americans remain in their homes and communities for as long as possible. For more information on requesting an elder-specific in-person training in your area, please visit the National Legal Resource Center's website.
