As the impacts of the pandemic continue to be felt around the country, the 2022 Mortgage Conference focused on providing the tools advocates need to meet the challenges of this moment. This included discussions of the early implementation of Homeowner Assistance Fund programs in the states, federally-backed loss mitigation options, dealing with “zombie” second mortgages, and an array of other hot topics. Agenda