In-Person Trainings

NCLC advocates are available for specialized, in-person training workshops in your state or at your local organization. The goal of our in-person training program is to increase the quality and accessibility of advocacy resources for consumers nationwide. NCLC advocates have the ability to train your group on a number of consumer law topics. Our workshops are designed for all levels of experience, from a nuts and bolts session for beginners to cutting-edge strategies for sophisticated practitioners. The sessions are carefully prepared to be practical, participant-oriented, and energizing. To request an in-person trainings in your state or at your local organization, please fill out this training request form.

National Elder Rights Training Project

NCLC is pleased to provide in-person trainings for the aging and legal services networks nationwide. NCLC and our partners work with the Administration on Aging/Administration for Community Living to further its mission of helping Older Americans remain in their homes and communities for as long as possible. For more information on requesting an elder-specific in-person training in your area, please visit the National Legal Resource Center’s website.
