

Webinars

NCLC offers free webinars broadcast nationwide. Webinar topics include auto fraud, consumer rights for domestic violence survivors, bankruptcy, racial justice, student loans, rural development and more. NCLC also offers a monthly elder-related webinars series through the National Elder Rights Training Project generously supported by the Administration on Aging/Administration for Community Living.

Note: NCLC does not provide CLE credits for webinars. Upon request, we will provide a certificate of attendance.

Past Webinars || Get updates on upcoming webinars