The Consumer Rights Litigation Conference and Class Action Symposium

November 9-20, 2020

Agenda

This year, NCLC’s Consumer Rights Litigation Conference and Class Action Symposium will take place entirely online, utilizing a state of the art platform with outlets to learn, gather, and network with the best in the field. Starting on Monday, November 9 and ending on Friday, November 20, the Virtual CRLC will cover more consumer law content than ever before, including full tracks on Auto Loans, Credit/Banking, Credit Reporting, Debt Collections, Mortgages and Foreclosures, Student Loans, and the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA). As always, the CRLC will also provide individual courses on ethics, litigation, practice issues and more. Even better, the new virtual format will give attendees the opportunity to earn far more CLEs than in previous years — up to 43.5 CLEs compared to last year’s 20.75!

Requirements for Attendance

You will certify that:

(1) You are a lawyer and that neither you nor anyone in your organization represents business or commercial clients (except in disputes between two businesses) or is engaged in any business other than providing legal representation to consumers.

(2) You are an employee of a state or federal regulatory or enforcement agency or of a state or federally funded nonprofit legal aid organization.

If you have questions regarding these eligibility requirements or about your own eligibility to attend, please email: attendance@nclc.org.
