

Vern Countryman Nomination

Established in 1990, Vern Countryman was a legendary champion of consumer rights, and a founding trustee of the National Consumer Law Center. The Countryman Award has become the top lifetime achievement award for consumer attorneys, presented annually to an attorney with 15 or more years of experience whose career has significantly contributed to the rights and well-being of low-income consumers.

The winning candidate is chosen by a committee of NCLC's Board of Directors consisting of attorneys and low-income clients. Please be sure to build a short but compelling case for your nominee.

We welcome nominations for those who meet the criteria below. Please answer all questions and submit this PDF and any required attachments to cmurray@nclc.org.
