Donor Privacy Policy

The National Consumer Law Center (NCLC) is committed to respecting the privacy of its donors and other supporters.

NCLC collects and maintains information about donors including contact information, giving details, information on events attended, publications received, actions taken, issue concerns and more to understand their interests in our mission, and to update them on the organization's plans and activities.

On occasion, NCLC may share donor names and contact information with another organization for purposes including, but not limited to, coalition-building and grassroots mobilization. All other donor information is kept strictly confidential, and not shared with any other organization unless prior permission is obtained.

Any donor who does not want their name and contact information shared with another organization should contact NCLC at 617-542-8010 or development@nclc.org.
