QUESTIONS
Dodd–Frank FTC Rulemaking

• Previously, rulemaking at the FTC was a cumbersome mix of administrative and adjudicative requirements

• Now, Administrative Procedures Act for FTC Act Sections 5 and 18(a)(1)(B)- Unfair or deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce
FTC Rulemaking

- 1916 - 1963 only procedural rulemaking
- 1964 light bulb advertising rule
- 1972 “cooling off” rule on door to door sales
- 1975 Section 18 added to FTC Act
- FTC Used Car Rule
Poll

• Have consumers you work with experienced (check all that apply):
  – Misrepresentations about the financing or the car
  – Products or fees the consumer did not want or understand being added to the transaction
  – High pressure sales tactics for add-on products
  – Yo-yo or other attempts by the dealer to change the terms after the sale
FTC Auto Dealer Task Force

- March 15 announcement
- FTC is hosting a series of public roundtables
- Three to five cities around the United States
- The roundtables will provide an opportunity for regulators, consumer advocates, industry participants, and other interested parties to discuss consumer protection issues in connection with motor vehicle sales and leasing.
FTC Roundtable Topics

- What categories of motor vehicle dealers (i.e. “franchise,” “independent,” and/or “buy here, pay here”) offer credit or leases to consumers?
- What types of financing and leasing are offered to consumers today?
- What practices involving motor vehicle dealers raise consumer protection issues? How prevalent are these practices in the industry as a whole or in any subset of the industry?
FTC Roundtable Topics

- Do motor vehicle dealers engage in “yo-yo financing?”
- Do finance companies provide incentives or payments to motor vehicle dealers in exchange for consumers receiving more expensive credit?
- Do motor vehicle dealers misrepresent credit or lease terms to consumers?
- Do motor vehicle dealers charge interest rate mark-ups or up-front charges to consumers for credit or leases about which consumers are unaware?
FTC Roundtable Topics

• Is substantial negative equity from a prior purchase, or money owed on a prior lease, frequently rolled into consumers’ next vehicle purchases or leases?

• Do motor vehicle dealers engage in credit or lease packing, such as by including amounts for credit insurance, guaranteed automobile protection (“GAP”), or other add-ons into payment amounts or other terms quoted to consumers?
FTC Roundtable Topics

• Do dealers include warranties, service contracts, and other add-ons in credit or lease contracts?
• Do consumers experience discrimination in motor vehicle financing or leasing?
• Do military personnel or their families face unique consumer protection concerns when purchasing motor vehicles?
FTC Roundtable Topics

• Do motor vehicle dealers fail to pay off liens or trade-ins or otherwise fail to transfer title at a sale?
• Do motor vehicle dealers use global positioning systems or similar devices to locate and track financed and leased cars?
• Do consumer protection issues exist in connection with auto auction houses?
