Community Event Sponsorships Price per Sponsor Group Goal

The Consumer Rights Litigation Conference offers several opportunities for like-minded attorneys to gather, network, share stories, and enjoy each other's company. We have found that offering co-sponsorship opportunities for these events allow for shared responsibility and ownership of them, creating a further sense of community.

Women's Networking Suite $1,000 $8,000

The Women's Networking Suite has grown and changed over the years, each time striving to create a welcoming and open environment. In 2018 the sponsors of the event chose to modify the one-time breakfast by creating an all-day suite where collaboration and networking could happen at any time. Should you wish to contribute to this event, please know that all who co-sponsor are actively engaged in decision making! Contributions to this fund cover food and beverages in the all-day suite.

First Timer's Breakfast $1,000 $6,000

This unique breakfast is the one time when first timers and seasoned veterans of the CRLC are gathered and engaged in thoughtful ways to ensure newbies have the support and knowledge needed to best navigate the coming days. Contributions to this fund cover the breakfast and support the breakfast organizer with their give-aways.

Advocates of Color Luncheon $500-$1,000/each $4,000

The Advocates of Color Luncheon has become a tradition at CRLCs these last 6 years. Providing a space for meaningful conversation, this luncheon always takes place on the second day of the conference. Advocates are encouraged to discuss triumphs and challenges while getting to know one another better. Contributions to this fund cover food and beverages for the lunch.
