Origins of DOMA

1993: Concern that Hawaii might allow same-sex couples to marry and that other states and federal government might have to recognize them.

1996: The So-Called DOMA Passed

§ 1: Short Title
§ 2: State Recognition Not Required
§ 3: Federal Definition of Marriage: “In determining the meaning of any [federal law] the word ‘marriage’ means only a legal union between one man and woman as husband and wife, and the word ‘spouse’ refers only to a person of the opposite sex...”
United States v. Windsor

In 2007, after a 40 year relationship, Edith Windsor and Thea Spyer marry in Canada. When Spyer dies in 2009 and leaves her estate to Windsor, Windsor pays $363,053 of federal estate tax because she is not eligible for the tax exemption for surviving spouses as a result of DOMA.

U.S. Supreme Court rules § 3 of DOMA unconstitutional:
✓ DOMA violates liberty and equal protection guarantees
✓ The purpose and effect of DOMA is to impose a “disadvantage, a separate status, and so a stigma” upon married same-sex couples.
“DOMA undermines both the public and private significance of state sanctioned same-sex marriages; for it tell those couples, and all the world, that their otherwise valid marriages are unworthy of federal recognition. This places same-sex couples in an unstable position of being in a second-tier marriage. The differentiation demeans the couple, whose moral and sexual choices the Constitution protects, and whose relationship the State has sought to dignify. And it humiliates ten of thousands of children now being raised by same-sex couples.”

-Justice Kennedy writing for the majority
United States v. Windsor

Practical Effects:

✓ Allows married same-sex couples in equality states access to over 1,000 tangible federal benefits;

✓ Permits married same-sex couples in non-recognition states access to some federal benefits;

✓ Does NOT require non-recognition states to permit same-sex couples to marry or recognize their out-of-state marriages, although provides a powerful tool for advocates
United States v. Windsor

- Social Security
- Military and Veterans Spousal Benefits
- Immigration
- Medicaid and Medicare
- Federal Employees Benefits
- TANF and more…
Federal Benefits

• DOJ coordinating “across the board” agency review of all federal laws.

• Two main marriage recognition rules for federal benefits programs:

  “Place of Celebration” = program recognizes legally married same-sex couples no matter where they live

  “Place of Domicile” = program recognizes legally married same-sex couples only in states that also recognize their marriage
Social Security, SSI

• No final decision, but usually looks to place of domicile.

• Possible that civil unions and registered domestic partnerships (RDPs) will be recognized along with legal marriages.

• SSA is now processing social security spousal claims in marriage equality jurisdictions.

• Spouses in other states encouraged to apply for benefits now to preserve claims, but processing on hold pending final determination.
Social Security, SSI

• Social security spousal benefits include:
  ✓ Retirement benefits
  ✓ Disability benefits
  ✓ Lump-sum death benefit
  ✓ Surviving spouse benefit

• For SSI, being recognized as married generally makes it more difficult to qualify, as both spouses’ incomes and resources will be considered.

• More information available at http://ssa.gov/doma/
Medicare

• Program run by HHS/CMS, administered by SSA
• For most purposes, place of celebration applies, though some aspects of the program are controlled by the SSA definition.
• Couples with civil unions or registered domestic partnerships are not recognized as spouses.
• Information for same-sex spouses can be found at http://medicare.gov/sign-up-change-plans/same-sex-marriage.html
Medicare

• Marriage affects eligibility for:
  ✓ No-premium Part A based on spouse’s work history
  ✓ Penalty-free late enrollment in Parts B & D for those on spouse’s employee health insurance
  ✓ Special enrollment periods
  ✓ Combining spousal income to determine premium amounts, programs to assist with Medicare costs

• Procedures have been developed to roll back some late enrollment penalties caused by DOMA, and to reduce some Part A premiums.
Policy Change in the Months/Years Ahead

• Administrative Change
  ✓ What can SSA do on its own?

• Legislative Change
  ✓ What can Congress force SSA to do?

• Change through the Judiciary
  ✓ What can the Judiciary do?
Administrative Change

• The SSA Statute:
  ✓ Place of Domicile v. Place of Celebration
    ✓ What does the statute say (or appear to say)?
    ✓ Does SSA have Discretion?
    ✓ Precedent
  ✓ The low hanging fruit:
    ✓ CUUs and RDPs
    ✓ Who makes this change and how does it happen?
Legislative Change

• Social Security and Marriage Equality (SAME) Act of 2014
  ✓ Senators Murray (D WA) and Udall (D CO)
  ✓ Introduced May 8, 2014
  ✓ Goal: to ensure all same-sex spouses receive equal treatment under the Social Security Act when applying for Social Security benefits, regardless of where they live (place of celebration).
  ✓ Prospects?
Legislative Change

• Respect for Marriage Act
  ✓ Introduced June 26, 2013
  ✓ Sen. Dianne Feinstein (D CA): S. 1236
  ✓ Reps. Jerrold Nadler (D N.Y) and Ileana Ros-Lehtinen (R FL): HR 2523
  ✓ Amends DOMA to repeal provision that prohibited a state, territory, possession, or Indian tribe from being required to recognize any public act, record, or judicial proceeding of any other state, territory, possession, or tribe respecting a same sex marriage.
  ✓ Place of Celebration
  ✓ Removes the definition of "spouse" (currently, person of the opposite sex who is a husband or a wife).
  ✓ Prospects?
Change through the Judiciary

- Seventeen states and the District of Columbia with marriage equality (FTM)
  - CA, CT, DE, HI, IA, IL, ME, MD, MA, MN, NH, NJ, NM, NY, RI, VT, and WA
- 72 Cases in 31 states/territories (FTM)
- Cases in Federal Appeals Courts (FTM)
  - Kentucky, Michigan, Nevada, Ohio, Oklahoma, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, and Virginia.
- Supreme court could rule in the next few years
