

Helping Those Harmed Financially by COVID-19 Policy & Practice: An Overview

April 23, 2020

With millions of Americans out of work due to the COVID-19 emergency, it is more important than ever to identify what we can do to help ease their financial burden. There are actions you can take and resources you can access to help consumers now. Join us for a broad overview of how you can (1) advocate for policies in your state to help consumers facing financial hardships due to the COVID-19 emergency (first half) and (2) help consumers navigate and access the financial relief they need during the COVID-19 emergency (second half).

Speakers:

- Andrea Bopp Stark, National Consumer Law Center
- Michael Best, National Consumer Law Center

Additional Material: Answered Q & A