

UTILITY PROGRAMS (CONTACT YOUR UTILITY COMPANY TO APPLY)

- Discount Rate: Income-qualified utility customers can receive a discount on electric and gas utility bills. Contact your utility company or local community action agency for details.
- Arrearage Management Programs (AMPs): Each utility company offers special payment programs to eligible income-qualified customers with overdue utility bills, to help cancel these arrearages when customers enter a payment plan and make regular payments. Contact your utility company for details.

PROTECTIONS FROM UTILITY DISCONNECTION

- Contact your utility company or municipal utility to apply for special shut-off protections for income-qualified customers during the winter season, or for customers with a serious illness, infants, and seniors.

EMERGENCY UTILITY HELP

- Apply for help with rent, mortgage or utility bills. RAFT (Residential Assistance for Families in Transition) benefits can be used for utility payment help for qualified low-income renters and homeowners, for current or overdue utility bills and other expenses.
- Housing Consumer Education Centers are available to help.

FUEL ASSISTANCE OR HEAP (HOME ENERGY ASSISTANCE PROGRAM)

- HEAP applications are usually accepted beginning in early autumn and continuing into the winter and spring. Deadlines change each year – contact your local community action agency or other HEAP agency for more information.
- More information about HEAP and where to apply can be found on Mass.gov or by calling the Massachusetts Heatline at 800-632-8175.
- Apply for HEAP online at <https://www.toapply.org/MassHEAP>.
- The local community action agency or HEAP program may have information about other assistance available in the community, such as the Good Neighbor Energy Fund.

LEAN PROGRAM

- Free energy efficiency services for income-eligible households. Apply through a local community action agency or MassSave, more information here.

LIFELINE

- Households may also apply for Lifeline benefits for additional help with phone and internet costs.

Questions? Contact us at stayconnected@nclc.org.