

APPENDIX B

State Summaries

This appendix shows, for each state plus the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands, how well the jurisdiction protects a family's basic income and assets from seizure by creditors and debt collectors. It analyzes the jurisdiction's exemption laws from the perspective of a consumer who is supporting two children and working full-time at minimum wage. It includes the overall grade for the state, and the grades for each of the five elements we rate: protection of a living wage, the home, a car, a basic amount in a bank account, and household goods.

	AMOUNT	CITATION	DETAILS	GRADE
Weekly wages of...	$1,000	Ala. Const. Art. X, § 204	Statute protects only the federal minimum, 75% of wages or 30 times the federal minimum wage. However, the state constitution provides a $1,000 wildcard for personal property, and a state appellate decision, Renter's Realty v. Smith, 322 So. 3d 1060 (Ala. Ct. App. 2000), holds that this can be applied to exempt up to $1,000 in wages in the hands of the debtor's employer. Advocates report that this exemption is being widely applied.	A
A home worth...	$18,800	Ala. Code § 6-10-2	This is 8% of the median home value in the state.	F
A car worth...	$9,400	Ala. Code § 6-10-6	The only exemptions available for a car are a $9,400 statutory wildcard,* adjusted triennially for inflation, and a $1,000 constitutional wildcard. This uses all but $1,000 of these wildcards.	D
A bank account worth...	$1,000	Ala. Code § 6-10-6	This uses the remainder of the wildcards. In re Lively , 583 B.R. 534 (Bankr. M.D. Ala. 2017), the court treated the statutory wildcard as available to protect a sum of money that a state court was holding for the debtor, so it appears that it can probably be used to protect a bank account.	C
Household goods worth...	No protection	Ala. Code § 6-10-6	If the wildcards are used to protect a $9,400 car and $1,000 in a bank account, nothing will be left to protect household goods.	F

A “wildcard” is an exemption that is not limited to a particular category of property, but can be used to protect items of the debtor’s choice.*

This summary and those for other jurisdictions are based on state exemption laws, other than those that apply only in bankruptcy court. It assumes that, if the state allows a “wildcard” exemption, the debtor will use it, or most of it, first to protect a car up to $15,000, then to protect a bank account up to $3,000, and then any remainder to protect household goods. As of 2025, the federal minimum wage is $7.25 an hour.

A “wildcard” is an exemption that is not limited to a particular category of property, but can be used to protect items of the debtor’s choice.*

This summary and those for other jurisdictions are based on state exemption laws, other than those that apply only in bankruptcy court. It assumes that, if the state allows a “wildcard” exemption, the debtor will use it, or most of it, first to protect a car up to $15,000, then to protect a bank account up to $3,000, and then any remainder to protect household goods. As of 2025, the federal minimum wage is $7.25 an hour.
